Youth Employment and Training Programme, Labour Department
Notes on Off-the-job Vocational Training Courses/Examinations

A. Submission of application, processing procedures and arrangement on reimbursement:

1. Applicants must be trainees who are being employed and receiving on-the-job training under YETP of the Labour Department.
2. Please note that the course/examination should commence within the on-the-job training period.
3. Trainees should complete Part 1 of the application form and submit it to the YETP (KLN Office), Labour Department (Address: 9/F, Kowloon East Government Offices, 12 Lei Yue Mun Road, Kwun Tong, Kowloon) by fax (Fax No.: 2383 6414), by mail or in person at least two weeks prior to the commencement of the course/examination. Submission by email is not accepted.
4. The off-the-job vocational training courses/examinations you intend to enrol in or apply for must be relevant to the on-the-job training, and the course/examination concerned must be provided by a legal and appropriate organisation. Please refer to the webpage of the Education Bureau (www.edb.gov.hk) or the Continuing Education Fund (www.wfsfaa.gov.hk/cef/en/preparation/providers.htm) for information on course/examination organisations.
5. In general, if the course/examination organisation is not a training institute on the list of the Education Bureau or the Continuing Education Fund, you must first consult the case manager, and the case manager should complete Part 1(B) of the application form before submitting it to the Programme Office. The Programme Office may consult your employer about your application when necessary.
6. All applications will be scrutinized by the YETP (KLN Office), Labour Department. Each trainee will be notified of the result under Part 2 of the application form by mail and by phone.
7. If the application is rejected, the trainee may need to discuss with his/her case manager and choose other suitable course(s)/examination(s).
8. If the application is approved in principle, the trainee can proceed with the enrolment of the relevant course/examination. The trainee should keep the original payment receipt for claiming reimbursement of the relevant course/examination fees. The reimbursement will not be approved if the trainee is not engaged in the on-the-job training at the time when the course/examination commences.
9. The upper limit for reimbursement of the course/examination fees is $4,000 per trainee per on-the-job training engaged under YETP of the Labour Department.
10. Trainees shall fill in Part 3 of the application form, while the course organisation shall complete Part 4 of the application form, if necessary. Trainees shall return the completed form (as well as the original Part 1 and Part 2 of the form), together with the documents required to the YETP (KLN Office), Labour Department (Address: 9/F, Kowloon East Government Offices, 12 Lei Yue Mun Road, Kwun Tong, Kowloon) within 6 months after completing the course (attendance rate of 90% or above) or acquiring the respective qualification or certificate. Late applications or applications with incomplete information or insufficient documents will not be processed.
11. Upon approval, the payment of the reimbursement will be made by a crossed cheque to the trainee via the Treasury and will be sent to you by post. If the age of the trainee is under 18 and thus could not receive the payment by cheque, the trainee is required to complete the form "Authority for Payment to a Bank" (Form GF179A) and submit it together with a copy of the front page of bankbook or a copy of the ATM card to YETP(KLN Office), Labour Department for arranging payment by bank transfer.

B. The YETP (KLN Office), Labour Department approves the applications of course/examination enrolment if :-

1. the vocational skills acquired in the course/examination are relevant to the on-the-job training post;
2. the course/examination includes assessment elements (e.g. certificate of pass issued by the course/examination organisation) for evaluating students' performance; or whether the training course comprises designated training hours, and the course organisation would record the attendance of the participants and issue attendance proof/certificate; and
3. the course/examination is provided by legitimate and appropriate organisation and open to public.

Notes on Off-the-job Vocational Training Courses/Examinations (Cont'd)

C. Trainee is eligible to claim for reimbursement of off-the-job vocational training course/examination fees (maximum $4,000 per each on-the-job training engaged under YETP) if he/she has:-

1. obtained approval in principle on the enrolment of the course/examination concerned from the YETP (KLN Office), Labour Department before the commencement of the course/examination; and
2. attained a course attendance rate of 90% or above, and/or acquired respective qualifications or certificates of the course/examination.

D. Documents required for claiming reimbursement:

1. Original of the whole Application Form for Off-the-job Vocational Training Courses/Examinations (with Part 1 to Part 3);
2. A copy of the certificate of respective qualifications/pass of examination, or proof of attendance issued by the course organisation, or the original copy of Part 4 of the application form completed by the course organisation to specify the course attendance rate (the certificate or proof must bear the name of the trainee, name of the course/examination and the organisation, and the period/date of the course/examination); and
3. Original official receipt for course/examination fees (must bear the name of the trainee, name of the course/examination and the organisation, the cost of the course/examination, and the official stamp of the course/examination organisation).

E. Other points to note:

1. Any trainee, who is interested in any off-the-job vocational training courses/examinations, should discuss with his/her employer before enrolment to better arrange the working hours and reshuffle of job duties when necessary.
2. Prior approval must be obtained from the Programme Office in writing regarding any changes of the obtained approval in principle (including content, date, time, fees, etc.) before the commencement of the course/examination, or else no reimbursement would be made. Application should be re-submitted if the course/examination or organisation has changed or the course/examination fee increased.
3. Application form can be downloaded from the YETP website (www.yes.labour.gov.hk).
4. Trainees should submit separate application forms for vocational training course and relevant examination.
5. Trainees are not allowed to submit duplicate applications in respect of the same vocational training course if the course has been previously approved by the YETP (KLN Office), Labour Department.
6. All information provided must be true and correct. Reimbursement will not be approved and trainee will be criminally liable if he/she makes false statements or provides fraudulent documents knowingly and willfully.
7. The final right to approve the reimbursement of course/examination fees rests with the Programme Office.
