Youth Employment and Training Programme (YETP)

The Youth Employment and Training Programme (YETP) of the Labour Department provides free and diversified employment support services for young people, enabling them to better understand themselves and their work aptitudes, and enriching their job skills and experience. All young people aged 15 to 29 with educational attainment at sub-degree level or below are welcome.

Each trainee enrolls under the YETP would be entitled to receive a 12 months' career development service period and be assigned a career advisor, who is a registered social worker, to provide personalised career guidance and support throughout the service period.

For youth with special employment and training needs (e.g. people of different races), upon initial screening, they may enrol in Training Courses or apply for Workplace Attachment Training (WPA) or On-the-job Training (OJT) on the recommendation of career advisors.

Major Features of the YETP

Career Guidance

- Trainees will receive personalised career guidance and post-employment support from professional social workers.

Training Courses

- Career advisors of the YETP will assist trainees in selecting and enrolling in suitable training courses of Employees Retraining Board (ERB) (including youth training courses, other vocational skills training courses covering various industries and generic skills courses) or training courses for special employment projects and specific service targets under the YETP.

Training Allowance

- Eligible trainees who enrolled in a training course of ERB or the YETP via the Programme and obtained 80% attendance or above are entitled to apply for training allowance. Under the YETP, the amount of training allowance payable for "Youth Training Programme" courses of ERB is calculated at a rate of $167 per valid training day, while that for other ERB courses and the YETP courses is calculated at a rate of $333 per day (i.e. $166.5 per valid training session).
