Introduction

The Youth Employment and Training Programme (the Programme), launched by the Labour Department, provides a comprehensive platform of job search with one-stop and diversified pre-employment and on-the-job training for young school leavers aged 15 to 24 with educational attainment at sub-degree level or below. The Programme enables young people to better understand themselves and their work aptitudes while enriching their job skills and experience so as to enhance their employability.

Young people joining YETP will receive a series of free and customised training and employment support services including:

❖ Case Management and Employment Support Services

Registered social workers of Service Providers will assume the role of case managers and provide trainees with 12 months' basic case management services (basic service period), including personalised career guidance, job search assistance, employment support, etc. Upon expiry of the basic service period, trainees who are receiving on-the-job training under YETP or have secured employment may receive an extended case management services for another 12 months, so as to better assist them to settle in their jobs, overcome problems at workplaces, and pursue further learning and skills upgrading opportunities.

❖ Pre-employment Training Courses

(1) Core Course – Job-search and interpersonal skills training

This is a compulsory course for trainees aged 15 to 19 who join the Programme for the first time. Trainees aged 20 to 24 or who have participated in the Programme before may also enrol this course on case managers' recommendation after completion of the initial screening.

(2) Elective Courses

During the 12 months' basic service period, trainees may enrol at most five Elective Courses, including

Elective I Course - Discipline and motivation training

Elective II Course - Computer software training

Elective III Courses - Job-specific skills training

Elective IV Course - Vocational language training

❖ Workplace Attachment Training

Apart from taking pre-employment courses, trainees may undergo one-month workplace attachment training to acquire work experience, develop potentials and explore employment opportunities.

✧ On-the-job Training

Trainees are engaged as employees under on-the-job training of 6 to 12 months with pay. Employers appoint staff with relevant work experience to be mentors of trainees and provide appropriate guidance at work. Trainees with good performance may be offered further employment upon completion of on-the-job training. During the period of on-the-job training, trainees may enrol on relevant vocational courses and apply for reimbursement of course and examination fees up to $4,000.

✧ Tailor-made Training-cum-Employment Projects

YETP cooperates with employers and service providers to organise tailor-made training-cum-employment projects for various industries to cater for the specific needs of employers. Upon satisfactory completion of the concerned pre-employment training courses, trainees will undergo on-the-job training of 6 to 12 months, receiving continued training and employment opportunities.

We hope that young people participating in the Programme could make good use of the skills and experience acquired through the above diversified pre-employment and on-the-job training in pioneering for their future.

Appendix 5: – Where to Obtain “Careers Information”

For most people, career plays an important part in their lives. Apart from material rewards, a job can give you a sense of satisfaction and accomplishment. Your confidence can be assured and your potential may be further developed through applying your knowledge and skills at work and interacting with other people. Career choosing is an important matter. Do spare some time to think thoroughly before you embark on the process of job search.

To better understand your career orientation before selecting training courses, you may contact your case manager to make use of a comprehensive set of career assessment kit. The assessment helps gauge your career interest and other related potentials. You may also visit the website of Youth Employment Start at www.e-start.gov.hk to have a try on the simplified version of the assessment kit. For details, please contact your case manager or call the Programme Office at 2112 9932.
